BULLETS FOIL HIGH SCHOOL INITIATION

"WILDCAT" OPERATOR SENTENCED

A fine of $1000 and a sentence of two years in the federal penitentiary was imposed upon Murray "Sure Shot" Brady, former president of the Sure Shot Oil company, who formerly maintained offices in Richmond and is said to have snatched 400 Richmond and Eastbay residents out of $100,000 through the sale of stock.

The United States Circuit Court of appeals in San Francisco yesterday upheld his conviction by a federal court on charges of using the mails to defraud. The court characterized his appeal from the federal court's decision as "rambling and without merit."

Brady is at liberty on $5000 bail.

The former oil company chief operated an alleged "wildcat" concern, the Sure Shot company, owning 432 acres in this county near the Alameda county line west of Dublin. A well was drilled up on this site, but it is not known whether any thing productive was realized in the form of oil.

At his offices on Macdonald avenue here, Brady was successful in interesting many Richmond people in his concern.

In March, 1927, Brady was found guilty on 12 counts of an indictment and was sentenced to two years at hard labor in McNeil Island penitentiary. He also was fined $1000 and ordered to pay costs of approximately $2500.

Potentate on Horseback

Veterans Plan To Send Delegates To Stockton Conclave

Veterans of Foreign Wars last night in Memorial hall completed plans for sending the drum corps to the state convention to be held in Stockton June 7, 8 and 9. On June 10, they will make a trip to the Big Trees where a tree will be dedicated to the late Colonel Robert Loghry, department commander.

The drum corps practiced in Alvarado park Monday night and will hold another practice Friday night. May 29 the organization will hold a keeno party in Memorial hall, the proceeds from which will be devoted to the drum corps. A banquet was served at the close of the meeting by R. I. Cooper and W. A. Dahl.

Bandit Trio Will Face Court Here On Theft Charge

Three youths nabbed in San Francisco Monday charged with burglarizing a local tailor shop, were lodged in the Richmond jail yesterday afternoon to await arraignment this morning before Judge Alstrom.

Two of the youths, George Norton and William Ward, made a complete confession to local authorities. The other lad, Tony Musto, was not so talkative.

Bolts of goods valued at $1000 stolen from the shop of Arne Moe, Richmond tailor, was recovered.

Truck Drivers Have Hearing Postponed

Crockett Sugar Company Behind Dam Proposal

Disclosure that the California Hawaiian Sugar company of Crockett was backing a projected dam near St. Helena with a 22 mile pipe line to bring the water into Contra Costa county, was made yesterday at Napa when representatives of the Utility and Service company appeared before the Napa county supervisors to obtain a permit for the dam.

The board of supervisors are expected to make a decision today.

It is thought probable that the dam and pipe line may also serve industries located in Richmond, as the pipe line will be brought into this county via Carquinez bridge.

Machine Destroyed In Garage Blaze

A short circuit in the ignition wires is believed to have caused a fire which destroyed the automobile owned by Captain B. F. Ellison of the Salvation Army yesterday morning. ## HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS WIN U. S. ENGINEER'S APPROVAL

STUDENT USES SIX-SHOOTER TO HALT RITE

SACRAMENTO, May 15.—Unsuccessful efforts of a group of high school boys to initiate Victor Hendricks, 18, and his six-shooter into a secret Greek letter fraternity today resulted in police intervention and the sudden seizure of Victor and his firearms.

Firing right and left in the ceremony rooms, with two revolvers, young Hendricks broke up the ceremony in a deserted house and sent the fraternity boys flying in cover, they admitted, when after a few drinks he announced he "got a thrill only out of dead men."

Hendricks, whose hall has been set at $4000 on charges of disturbing the peace and carrying a concealed weapon, was also arrested in San Francisco about a year ago on his pension for packing a "six-gun" according to the police.

Big Saving In Passage Of Bill For Flood Control

Sacramento, May 15.—President Coolidge's approval of the flood control bill today means a saving of approximately $23,000,000 to northern California land owners according to Stephen W. Downey, attorney for the state reclamation board.

Leaves and other work of the Sacramento flood control project involve a total cost of $51,000,000 toward which, up to this time, Downey said, the federal and state governments have been contributing approximately 10 per cent each, the other 80 per cent remaining a charge against the land owners.

Trial Of Actis Brothers Delayed

Peter Actis and Charles Actis will appear for plea before Justice of the Peace Arthur A. Alstrom next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock on charges which are the outcome of a row following a dance given by the El Cerrito Lions club several weeks ago. Peter Actis is charged with assault with a deadly weapon and his brother is charged with battery.

Both were to have appeared yesterday but by stipulation between Deputy District Attorney Hiram Jacobs and Clara D. Horner, counsel for the defendants, a continuance was granted.

Smallest Infant In State Is Dead

LOS ANGELES, May 15.—David Lexau, one of the smallest babies ever born in California, was dead at the Heart of Screenland hospital in Culver City today. The tiny infant was exactly one month old and a desperate battle was waged for its life. David weighed only 31 ounces when born but the little body was perfect and physicians predicted he would live. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lexau.

Mr. and Mrs. Earn Hampton of 140 Ninth street are the parents of a daughter born at the Richmond Maternity hospital.

Kid Cupid's Ring Bouts On Decline

SACRAMENTO, May 15.—State authorities today inspected Kid Cupid's ring bouts for the past year and announced that the old boy seems to be "slowing up a bit."

The wedding ring champion landed his famous blow over the heart 53,457 times during the 12 months, but his "ring endorsement" were not so numerous as in former years. There were 56,694 California marriages, for instance in 1926.

Kid Cupid's ring victories during 1927 ran only 12.6 per thousand population, whereas the marriage was 13.7 per thousand during the previous year.

Comparative figures for the San Francisco bay district are as follows:

COUNTY	1926	1927

Unconscious since Sunday morning when he was picked up on the roadside near Orinda, N. Calhoun, 19 of Berkeley, became conscious yesterday noon at Cottage hospital here but was in such a weakened condition that no effort was made to question him regarding details of the accident in which it is believed he sustained concussion of the brain and internal injuries.

JOHN D. HUFFNAGLER, JR., son-in-law of Robert W. Stewart, of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, much go. There is much speculation as to whether or not he will be successful in his ouster.

Senate Roused By Expose Of Oil Contract

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Harry F. Sinclair gave Albert B. Fall's son-in-law $10,000 in currency on the day the oil magnate visited Three Rivers, N. M., to interview the former interior secretary with reference to the then pending letting of the $70,000,000 Salt Creek royalty oil contract.

The contract which was privately handed to the Sinclair Crude Oil company after Fall had thrown out fifteen bids he had received from other companies, was recently renewed for a five-year period by the present Secretary of the Interior, Hubert Work.

The Department of Justice, Universal Service has exclusively revealed, is now taking steps to void the contract on grounds of fraud.

The Senate Public Lands committee, its chairman, Gerald P. Nye, announced tonight, amazed at the Universal Service disclosures, will start a thorough investigation of the deal tomorrow.

City Manager James McVittie yesterday had no knowledge of where the channel would be located, and is awaiting further information.

It is expected that the El Dorado Oil company, which plans the erection of a half million dollar plant, will take definite action with arrival of detailed information.

Mrs. Harvey W. Hunt is ill at her home in El Cerrito.

Alleged Drunken Driver Will Face Martinez Court

James F. McGrath, arrested at Richmond, is scheduled to go to trial before a jury in Superior Judge A. B. McKenzies court in Martinez today on a felony charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

TRAINING WALL AND 2 BASINS ARE INCLUDED

Richmond's fight for increased harbor facilities was close to realization today with the recommendation to congress yesterday by the chief of army engineers that various improvements, including a retaining wall 10,000 feet long, a turning basin 800 feet square, maintenance of a turning basin opposite Point Potrero with a maximum width of 750 feet, be authorized for the local waterfront.

It is understood that favorable recommendation by the engineers means virtual acceptance by congress.

Other recommendations in the report, which does not increase the cost beyond that already authorized, provide a channel 30 feet deep from the upper end of the existing project, 400 feet wide between the bay and turning basin at Municipal Wharf No. 1, thence 300 feet wide to Point Potrero, thence 475 feet wide to the north turning basin.

The retaining wall will extend westerly from Brooks Island.

The 800-foot turning basin will be provided with a suitable approach widening at the northerly end of the improvement, according to the recommendation.

WHERE CAN IT BE DONE?

It's asked every day. You ask it. The wife asks it. Even the children ask it. Consciously or subconsciously, it pops up in everybody's mind the minute some need arises. That need may be repairing work we want done. It may be wondering how to get certain work off our hands. Yes, it may be trying to find a way out of a hundred different problems that come up for our personal decision from day to day. Fortunately for us, there ARE folks that give us the Service we want—who cater to our slightest wish! But who are they? That's what you and everybody else wants to know—and quite often on the spur of the moment! And that's when you appreciate having the BUYERS GUIDE for busy reference published EVERY DAY on the "Classified" section of the Record-Herald. Where can it be done? Who will do it? The ads in the Buyers Guide give you an answer in a flash.

But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically... and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or any other "side effect."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless (and works so fast) that even women who have a bottle on hand of any drug that has this remarkable substance, find it genuine.

"With Captain Bonparte!" Betsy exclaimed. "In what capacity? Will he be here? Is he in love?"

"Monsieur La Vert!"

"No, his master!" Betsy bit her lip though she was smiling.

"That's what I'll do," she laughed. "Captain Bonparte fall in love with me. I'll do it with my pretty dressings with nonsense and flattery. That's how I'll capture the man," she answered, the questioning look in Mary's eyes faded away.

When La "tutor" declines to accompany Betsy and the Bonapartes to the pigged and the throwing some gold pieces at the crowd, discharges him. Elaborate preparations are under way at the "tutor" house in honour of the distinguished visitor.

Within the house Miss Massensoid fluttered and sputtered and rearranged and re-arranged, giving the impression of carrying the en-the weight of the affair on her shoulders. Her corded silk gown of light gray, set off with tiny lace veenings, billowed about her in a desperate attempt to keep up with the pitter-patter of her feet that deepened, now and again from beneath the many petticoats and full

"Why, you're crying!" Mary exclaimed, and put her arms about her cousin's neck. "I do believe it's for love."

"Mary! Betty turned back. "Haven't I forbidden you to speak of him to me? Tears in my eyes for that man! Fire would burn them better!"

"Why Betty" Mary drew in and stared at her companion. "I never knew you to feel so badly towards anyone."

"Never had I such cause," B returned angrily. "Think of Mary, I, Betsy Patterson, the best blood of America at feet, to be flouted and scorned as a mere nothing of a French trick! It is unbearable! I cannot stop for thinking of it. Not because him—but the insult. Oh, it's a

"Isn't it better for Jerome Bonaparte to know he's welcome after he arrives, than before? Welcome on the outside! Welcome on us! Why, it would look like we were bidding the whole world to come here and burn our nose candles." She turned on her liveried servant who was

TURKISH BATH IS INVADED IN PICTURE HERE

Wouldn't it alarm you, girls, if you were enjoying yourself in a Turkish bath on ladies' night?

That is just what happens in the First National picture, "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath," co-starring Dorothy Mackaill and Jack Mulhall, which is being presented today at the California Theatre.

This hilarious situation is handled with such masterly skill by Edward Cline, director, under the personal supervision of Edward Small that convulsive laughter results. It is a question whether the two men, seeking to escape the police, are more embarrassed than the women when they drop into a bevy of bathing beauties.

Naturally, an unprecedented situation like this requires a cast of consummately skillful artists, so Mr. Small gathered in support of Miss Mackaill and Mulhall Jimmy Finlayson, Ethel Waters, "Mother" Ashton, Gwyn Williams, Reed Howes, Fred Kelsey and Harry Clark.

"Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath" is another Asher, Small and Rogers comedy drama, a worthy successor to such screen successes as "McFadden's Flat" and "The Gorilla."

Other film features include "At Ease" Lloyd Hamilton comedy. How to please the public "Hodge Podge" and Kinogram.

Official pictures of the World War taken by army photographers will be shown at the meeting next Tuesday. The films will be brought from the San Francisco presidio.

The next dinner dance of the organization will be held June 9 in the Athens club, Oakland. L. J. Thomas is chairman of the committee making arrangements. A get-together meeting of the Eastbay lodges will be held in Oakland May 31 when W. E. Simpson, president of the California Elks association will pay his official visit.

Hoover Assured Of Election, Says Attorney Horner

If Herbert Hoover is nominated at the Kansas City convention it will virtually assure him the election, in the opinion of Clare D. Horner, Richmond attorney, who as chief rabbin of Aahmes temple, Shrine of Oakland, was a delegate to the national convention held in Miami, Fla.

The popularity of the Californian was manifested throughout the 22 states visited by the 88 Pacific coast delegates in a special train both enroute to and returning from the convention.

The caravan visited the Grand Canyon, Albuquerque, Houston, New Orleans, Montgomery, Ala., Pensacola and Jacksonville before arriving in Miami.

Between 100,000 and 125,000 Shriner from 157 temples in the United States attended the convention, according to Horner.

The parade, he said, required four and one-half hours to pass a given point. Miami was well decorated with Shrine features for the guests.

The next convention will be held in Los Angeles June 3, 4 and 5 of next year.

Hearing On Stage Right Postponed

The Railroad Commission has extended the effective date of its recent order involving applications of California Transit company and others for auto stage rights in Contra Costa County, and between Oakland and Stockton, and other kindred matters, until June 1, 1928.

The county of Contra Costa has also filed a petition with the Railroad Commission for a rehearing of the said proceeding insofar as it involves the granting of a certificate to California Transit company successor in interest to operate auto stage service between Martinez and Stockton via Avon, Bay Point, Nicholas, Pittsburg, Antioch, Brentwood and the Borden Highway with certain restrictions; and the revoking of the Commission's previous order granting a certificate to Contra Costa Transit company to operate auto passenger service between Byron and Martinez and intermediate points, consolidated with the operative rights of Martinez-Bay Point Stage company between Bay Point and Martinez.

Some men will stand up for the fair sex anywhere—except in a street car.

ROMANCE OF NEWSPAPERS IN FILM HERE

Moviedom turned into Washington society when Monte Bell filmed screen extras posing as senators, foreign diplomats and high officials at the national capital for the Embassy Ball scenes in "Man, Woman and Sin."

John Gilbert's new Metro-Goldwyn Mayer vehicle, coming to the Richmond theatre today.

Full dress suits, colorful foreign uniforms and the uniforms of American army and navy officers appeared in a glittering array, together with gorgeous gowns in the reproduction of the most notable American social affair.

The ball was staged on a big set representing the entire ballroom in which the annual event is held, with several hundred people as guests and spectators. Gilbert plays a newspaper reporter who escorts the society editor to the ball and assists her in covering the event.

The new picture is a romance of newspaper life in Washington, its locale being the local room of a daily newspaper and scenes in and about the national capital. Much of the production was taken at Washington, where Bell, the director, and incidentally author of the story, journeyed with Gilbert and Jeanne Eagles, the famous stage star, who plays the heroine in the new picture.

The cast includes Marc McDermott, Charles K. French, Hayden Stevenson, Cosmo Kyrle Bellew, Gladys Brockwell and others of note.

Other film features include Educational comedy, "Dumb Bells a scream. Fox News and Moders in Mud.

$100,000 SUIT FOR SLANDER STARTS IN L. A.

LOS ANGELES, May 15.—Whether Emmett Corrigan, actor, was a "notorious trouble maker" and refused to dye his white hair to play the part of Captain Flagg in the stage play, "What Price Glory?" is to be threshed out in federal court here.

Corrigan's $100,000 slander suit against Louis O. MacLoon, theatrical producer, and his actress wife, Lillian Albertson MacLoon, has been called for trial.

The suit is based on a letter asserted to have been written by Mrs. MacLoon to Wedgewood Nowell of the Actors' Equity Association in 1926.

The letter was said to have been written while Corrigan was playing the part of "Captain Flagg" in the road show under the MacLoon management.

In the letter Corrigan was referred to as a "notorious trouble maker" who was unruly and had to be forced to "darken his white hair" for the part of Captain Flagg, according to the suit.

J. A. Dewees, attorney for Corrigan, announced he had subpoenaed seventeen well known stage and screen stars to testify to the social and amiable character of his client.

FIREMEN TAKE SECOND GAME FROM BANKERS

The Firemen won another game in the Commercial Twilight league last night by handing the American Trust team a 24 to 9 defeat.

Buyers stepped up to the plate and walked; Grady went him two better with a double-sacker and then Dick Paasch stepped up and got his only hit of the game. But it was a hit. Right over the right field fence for a round trip and three runs. Then the game was on for the Firemen. They hit every pitcher the Bankers could shove into the box.

Beck started for the Bankers but after Paasch made his homer, he was replaced by Howard and in the third inning Austin took the mound. Howard struck out two and walked one. Austin fanned one, walked three and hit three.

Lavenue pitched for the Firemen until the fifth inning when Hathaway entered and let loose his hooks. Lavenue struck out six and walked two. Hathaway fanned six.

The Bankers made plenty of errors, and thereby assisted the Firemen in chalking up runs. The Firemen made their share of errors too.

There was not a run scored by the Bankers until the third inning and the way they started around the bases in that inning, it looked for a time as though the 14 runs scored by the Firemen would mean nothing to the Bankers. But they were stopped after making five runs.

Peering at Col. Ruppert's champion Yankees from the grandstand, the left wing of the Huggins club appears to have improved to a greater extent than any other sector.
The Yankees' left wing, as you look from the grandstand, is made up of Joe Dugan, at third base, and beyond Mr. Dugan, out in the pasture, is the other member of the left wing, Bob Meusel.
If you follow, as I do, the daily reports from the Yankee battleground written by James M. Kahn, you will observe that Mr. Kahn's typewriter has been regularly pounding out peacocks of praise for these members of the left wing.

Mr. Dugan has been hopping about third base with all the nimbleness of an Albertina Rasch girl. Beyond him, and out in the cow pasture that encroaches on the left field stands, Meusel has been shaking those large dogs to such effect that any ball hit over Dugan's head is automatically registered as a put-out by the official scorer.

However, the left wing has not expended all of its new found energy in trapping grass-cutters and fly balls.

At the plate Dugan has been cuffing out his daily quota of knocks. Fresh from his sensational fielding successes at Washington in a recent series, Dugan returned to the Yankee Stadium and in the first game of the Yankees' present home stand hit a homer with the bases full and then laced out two singles and drew a pass, in four times at bat.

Since then he has hit another homer and by the time this goes to press, he will probably have planned another.

Meusel has been smacking doubles ever since the season started and leads the team in driving valuable tallies.

The left wing seen its duty and done it.

Bob Meusel Burning Up Averages
Bob Meusel's brilliant playing this season is a long-delayed verification of those critics who have always declared him to be one of the greatest players in the game if he wanted to go at top speed.

Meusel's laziness in other seasons, his calm indifference to a crisis that would have inflamed another player of hotter temperament has exasperated, in the past, those who only awaited an opportunity to trumpet his praises.

This season the stolid son of the golden west has shaken off his maddening calm and he is smoking hot.

Miller Huggins, who always claimed that Meusel was the greatest "sun" fielder in the big leagues, and who has never, since Bob joined the team in 1920, fresh from the Pacific Coast League, put Bob on the auction block, must be moved to real tears of joy as he observes the lanky one actually hustling.

It is hard to tell what has moved Bob to a renunciation of the theory that the bird who takes it easy lasts longer. Certainly he has lived up to that theory in practice if not in intent.

Bob May Will Gehrig's Role
It is entirely probable that if Lou Gehrig fails to act as pace-maker for Babe Ruth in the home-run derby this season, Meusel may step in as an impromptu interloper in the four-base minstrel.

In 1925, the year of Babe Ruth's stomach ache, when the Yankees finished seventh, Meusel led the American League in homers, with a net and gross product of thirty.

Ruth, bothered by an expensive stomach ache and one trouble or another, wound up the season with twenty-five.

The entire Yankee team hit the skids that season and it is a matter of some wonderment that Meusel, lazy on occasions, was the only Yank who played sensational ball.

The infield crumbled, and the outfield tottered, but Meusel reached top form.

It was the season that James M. Kahn found the task of reporting the Yankees' daily battles difficult in the extreme. Each day Mr. Kahn would seat himself at his typewriter and each day his lead would say:

"If in fact, in the Yankees' seventh position, for they are NOT a seven-h place club." And he wrote that same lead right up to the final game of the season when final returns showed that the Yankees, that season anyway, WERE a seven-h place club.

Ranks With All-Time Outfields
With Meusel scurrying about the cow pastures in some haste and eagerness, the Yankees, this season can lay claim to possession of one of the greatest outfields of all time.
With Ruth in right field, Earl Coombs, the Kew-Forest, in center, and Meusel in left, Miller Huggins can go to sleep on his outfield problem. There ain't no such animal.
There is only one flaw in that outfield, and that flaw is in the throwing arm of Coombs. He has everything else.

BOULDER VOTE IS SOUGHT BY SEN. JOHNSON

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Senator Johnson of California served notice today that he would fight to keep Congress in session until the Boulder Dam bill is disposed of. It would be "a shame and a disgrace" if leaders do not permit a vote, he said.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The Boulder Canyon dam flood protection bill, embracing the greatest constructive enterprise in the history of the national government today broke through six years of filibusters and power-trust lobby opposition.

It was assured of action by the national House of Representatives. The House Rules Committee voted to "give it a rule." That means that the bill will be laid before the members of the House for action during the present session of Congress. Action upon it will be begun probably next Tuesday.

Advocates of the legislation, which the power trust lobby has raised a fund of $400,000 to defeat, expressed their gratification.

Representative Phil Swing of California said in a statement that this was the greatest step yet accomplished in the long history of the bill.

Renner Enters Not Guilty Plea To Wife's Charge

Pleading not guilty to a charge preferred by his former wife, Mrs. H. J. Kammerer of Richmond, Ray Renner, 34, returned here recently from Montana, yesterday had his trial on a charge of failure to provide for a minor child fixed for May 23 by Superior Judge A. B. McKensie. Renner is at liberty on bail.

Denying in a statement to the court that Renner, once arrested in San Diego county and released had jumped $500 bail to go to Montana, Renner's attorney declared that a San Diego bonding firm prevailed upon Mrs. Kammerer to sign a second complaint against her ex-husband so that he might be returned and the forfeited $500 bail returned to the concern.

The attorney also charged that Renner, brought back from Montana by a representative of the bonding firm, had been required to sign a note guaranteeing to repay to the ending firm the cost of his transportation here from Montana.

Renner, the attorney declared, did not "jump" bail in San Diego county as has been charged, but said he left in pursuance of his work as a traveling salesman after he had been informed if he paid $125 of $155 due his ex-wife the charge against him would be dropped.

WINS 15 YEAR DAMAGE SUIT IN L. A. COURT

LOS ANGELES, May 15.—After 16 years of litigation, Mrs. Grave A. Fendler, Los Angeles playwright, has been awarded $781,891 damages against Richard Walton Tully, author, and Aliver Moroso, theatrical producer, for alleged plagiarism in producing "The Bird of Paradise," according to world received here from New York today by attorneys for Mrs. Fendler.

Mrs. Fendler had charged that the plot of "The Bird of Paradise" was taken from a play "In His Own Right" written by her in 1909. "The Bird of Paradise" was written by Tully and produced over the country by Moroso.

She filed her first suit in 1912 and in 1924, the Supreme Court of New York, decided in her favor and ordered that a full accounting of all profits be made.

Saul J. Baron of New York was appointed sole referee and in his decision sent here today, decided Mrs. Fendler was awarded more than a quarter of a million dollars which constitute profits on the play with interest to date.

In his report Baron held that Tully should pay $608,361 and Moroso $173,529 to Mrs. Fendler. Mrs. Fendler's son, Harold A. Fendler, who was but 12 years old when "The Bird of Paradise" litigation started, has since become a full fledged attorney and represented his mother in the trial of the case.

In his report today Baron also named former Senator James D. Phelan of San Francisco and Claus Spreckels of San Diego as having owned a substantial interest in "The Bird of Paradise" when it was first produced in Los Angeles in 1911.

Neither Phelan nor Spreckels have ever been named defendants in the suit, but Mrs. Fendler is planning to institute suit against them, according to her husband, Henry S. Fendler.
